THE VILLAGE by Giada and Petra

Bagnolo Cremasco is a countryside village in Lombardia, in the north of Italy. It has got about 4,800 inhabitants. Bagnolo is near important cities in this region like Milano, Bergamo, Brescia, Lodi, Cremona, Pavia, etc. From Bagnolo to Crema we take about 5 minutes by car. Crema is a “sweet” city (crema means cream) and it is where kids go to high school. Bagnolo is quite small but it has got a small shopping centre, a sports centre, a library, a chemist's, some baker's, schools, hair salons, bars, a kebab take away shop, a pub and a pizza restaurant and a McDonald's fast food restaurant. It has got a main church and some small churches. There are also factories where people from Bagnolo work.

Kindergarten and Nursery school by Noemi

The Kindergarten is a school for children aged 3 to 5 years old. The teachers are nuns from Madagascar. There is a canteen, a big hall and a small church inside. There is also a big garden and a playground around the school. The Nursery School is for little babies.

The Primary School by Serena and Camilla

The Primary School is behind the secondary school. It has ten classes with pupils from six to ten years old. There are also other classrooms including an IT room, a music room and a gym. The Head Teacher has her office here.

The Secondary School by Anita and Ilaria

This is our Secondary School. It is 50 years old. There are eight classes with more than twenty students each, so there are about two hundred students. In each class there is an Interactive White Board (IWB) and a computer. We also have a Science room and an IT room. There are two floors. There is also a garden around the school, an outdoor basketball court and a gym.

"Oratorio"- Parish Youth Centre by Elia, Jacopo and Nicolò

This is the "Oratorio" of Bagnolo Cremasco. It is the Parish Youth Centre where you can play, do activities with educators, have a coffee or a drink. It has a football pitch, a basketball court, a playground for children and a bar .

Town Hall by Davide and Amine

This is the Town Hall. The Mayor Dorianio Aiolfi works here. It's near the "Oratorio"

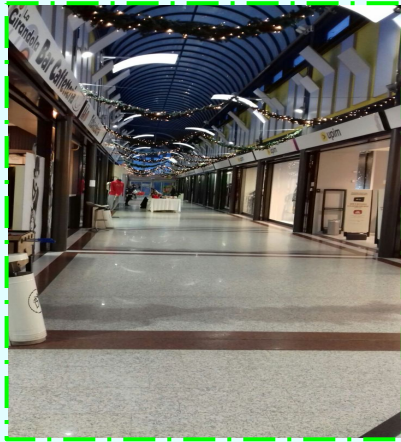

The Town Hall opening times and days. There is also the office of the local police.

The Library by Alex and Jamal

The Library is near the main church and next to the “Oratorio”. When you enter there are computers on the right and many books and on the left there is also an area for children.

Shopping Centre “Girandola” and Petrol Station by Asia, Lucrezia and Michela

The ‘Girandola’ Shopping Centre is near the Petrol Station and next to some factories in the village outskirts. It’s very big and sometimes events are organised here for people who like motorcycles, vintage cars etc. There are many shops like clothes’ shop, a bar, a newsagent’s a hairdresser’s and a supermarket. A lot of people from Bagnolo work there. There is an underground car park and escalators. The petrol station is situated near the shopping centre.

Mc Donald's Fast Food Restaurant by Vittoria and Chiara

This is McDonald's. Here you can eat fast food. The food is yummy but not very healthy. In the kitchen people work very fast but often you have to wait a long time to find a place to sit. There you can have breakfast, lunch or dinner.

Sports Centre by Emanuele and Federico

This is the Bar of the Sports Centre. There is also a gym to play volleyball and basketball and an indoor tennis court. There are tournaments here in summer.

This is the football field where the local football team play every Sunday. It is very big. There is also an athletic track around it.

Cycle paths by Noemi

In Bagnolo there are many cycle paths for pedestrians but they are also a safe place to ride a bike without being in the middle of the road. People walk, run and ride a bike there in their free time. Some cycle paths are in the middle of fields and some along the road.

Public gardens and parks by Andrea N., Luca F.P. and Sebastian

Bagnolo is in the countryside and it is a green village. There are several public gardens and playgrounds, where children play and have fun on slides and swings.

Dog Park and Cattery by Sofia, Luca and Alessandro

In Bagnolo Cremasco there is also the Cattery. It is in the gardens of De Magistri street. Homeless cats live inside the house, the operators bring food and water, cure and clean cats. The Dog Park is in Bagnolo Cremasco is in Bonomi street near the police station. The Dog Park is quite big and rectangular. Inside there is a drinking fountain, wooden toys for dogs, and a wooden table with two benches for dog owners to sit.

Squares and Statues by Astrid and Giulia

In Bagnolo there are three main squares: Square Roma, Square Aldo Moro and Square Santa Lucia. Square Roma is near the library and it's in front of one of the entrances of the parish church. Square Aldo Moro is a very big square where there is the main entrance of the parish church and the statue of San Francesco d'Assisi. Square Santa Lucia has got a large roundabout in the middle and it is near the Public Water Dispenser, the Kindergarten and the Primary school.

Police Station by Youssef and Marco

Near the schools there are 'grandfathers' that volunteer to help kids cross the road. They are really nice.

In Bagnolo there is a police station protected by cameras and it is also an armed zone. People can feel safe when the police car patrols around the village.

Farmhouses by Giorgia, Andrea, Anes and Harmandeep

In our village outskirts there are several farms where they raise cows. These farmhouses are different from each other and each in a different place and of different shape. There are cultivated fields and cattle. People use a lot of agricultural machinery like tractors.
